Time: 11:00 am to 1:00 pm

A session on “Emotional Intelligence” was conducted by Dr. Leena Jadhav on 17/11/2021 .It was an eye opening session on the importance and the ways to improve one’s emotional Intelligence and organized by NSS team.

Emotional intelligence describes an ability, capacity, skill, or self-perceived ability to identify, assess, and manage the emotions of one's self, of others, and of groups. People who possess a high degree of emotional intelligence know themselves very well and are also able to sense the emotions of others; thus they are resilient and optimistic. The five domains of emotional intelligence cover together personal (self-awareness, self-regulation, and self-motivation) and social (social awareness and social skills) competences. These five domains relate to knowing ones' emotions; managing your emotions; motivating yourself; recognizing and understanding other people’s emotions; and managing relationships, i.e., managing the emotions of others.
