Details of the cleanliness Drive

NSS and Student Council organized the Swachhta Abhiyan program to spread awareness on keeping our surrounding clean. Under this programme, all the students of NSS and Student had to participate. Even teachers were the essential part of this drive. As a part of this Cleanliness Drive, we cleaned the surrounding of the Parandwadi Gram Panchayat and temple. Some of us picked brooms and started our job. Some of the students started picking up dry waste with the help of gloves into the garbage bag provided by the institute.

Mrs. Sulabha Tai Kundan Bhote and Mrs. Janta Bai Bhote along with our principal Mr. Sunil Ingole graced the event with their presence.

One page Report on Essay Writing Competition

With reference to the notification dated 29 July 2021, regarding essay writing competition on the occasion of 75th Anniversary of Indian Independence, “Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav”.

Student Council and NSS have jointly organized and conducted an essay competition at our institute on the topic Future Technology Needs for India-2047, as per the guide lines provided by Technology Information, Forecasting & Assessment Council (TIFAC).

We have selected best five entries with the help of selection committee including Dr. Manjusha Tomar and Prof. Ashwini Gaikwad in Jury panel.

The standards for the evaluation were creativity, originality, writing skills, composition, technical excellence and presentation. 5 marks were allotted to each measure and in total, the essay was evaluated for 30 marks.

The best five entries were selected and sent on the email id ed.technicalcell@tifac.org.in for the further process.
